~ Additional Resources ~

Family Law court is for people who are ending a marriage or other committed relationship, dividing what they own and owe, working out child custody and visitation issues, dealing with child support or spousal support, addressing domestic violence issues, or identifying the legal parent(s) of a child.

Many of your questions may be answered by the content of the packet(s) provided. However, if you have additional questions or need additional assistance, the Court does offer self-help assistance through:

Contra Costa County Family Law Facilitators/Self-Help Center

<https://www.cc-courts.org/family/flf.aspx>

<https://direct.lc.chat/12110427/>

In person services are available during Lobby & DCSS hours, and by appointment. Virtual assistance is also available during LiveChat hours.

Please refer to the court website for current hours of service. Due to high demand, services may reach capacity prior to the regularly scheduled closing time. If capacity is reached, the que for services will be closed.

Self-Help Center staff are not your attorneys and cannot give you legal advice. Any information you share with Self-Help Center staff is not confidential. There is no attorney-client privilege and both sides may be assisted in a case. Self-Help Center staff provide procedural assistance and are not responsible for the outcome of your case.

The Clerk of the Court cannot accept any papers for filing that do not comply with California Rules of Court 2.100 et seq. (CRC 2.118)

To avoid having your papers rejected by the clerk:

Use Judicial Council forms whenever possible

Contra Costa County Local forms can be found at:

<https://www.cc-courts.org/forms/forms.aspx?Tab=Local>

If the form you need is not on the Judicial Council website or within the Local Forms, you will need to make your own. Any forms created must follow these rules:

1. One-sided paper – only one side of each page may be used when not filing electronically
2. White or unbleached paper – 8 1/2 by 11 inches
3. 12 pt black font with style equivalent to Courier, Times New Roman, or Arial (Handwritten papers are OK – but should be written legibly)
4. Margins – at least 1 inch from the left edge and 1/2 inch from right edge
5. Line spacing – 1.5 or double-spaced, with lines numbered consecutively in the left margin
6. Page Numbers – pages must be numbered consecutively on the bottom using Arabic numerals (1, 2, 3 ...)
7. Footer – except for exhibits, each page must have a footer at the bottom containing the title of the paper, and must be in at least 10 pt font
8. Binding – each paper not electronically filed must contain original pages without riders and must be firmly bound (e.g. paper clips or stapled)
9. First Page –
 - must contain your name, address, telephone number, and email address in the upper left corner, with the right corner being left blank for use of the clerk
 - the title of the court should appear in the center at approximately line 8
 - below the title of the court, starting at the left margin, the title of the case, along with the name of each party on case must be listed on separate lines
 - below the title of the court, to the right of and opposite the title of the case, the case number must be included

You may use Judicial Council Form MC-030 as a first page of any Declaration. You may also use Judicial Council Form MC-020 as an attachment to any form to remain in compliance with these rules.

For filing in person, you will need the original document, signed in ink (blue is best), and correct number of identical copies (original for the Court, a copy for each party) for the clerk to file.

Electronic Filing (E-Filing)

In addition to the above requirements, if you are e-filing your documents, you must be in compliance with California Rules of Court 2.250 et seq.

In Family Law Cases, self-represented litigants may choose to file in person or through e-file. Some documents are required to be filed in person.

The format of the documents to be filed electronically must meet the following requirements:

1. The software used to create the document must be available generally to the public or at a reasonable cost (e.g. adobe, pdf).
2. The printing of documents must not result in the loss of document text, format, or appearance.
3. The document must be text searchable, without loss of the document's content.

The Rules are important – Remember - You want the Judge to understand what you have written. Don't make that impossible by submitting papers that are too hard to read because they are upside down, the print is too small or too light, or the pages have fallen out of the file because they are too small or too large and/or not properly fastened.

FL-107-INFO Legal Steps for a Divorce or Legal Separation

STEP 1. Start Your Case

- The petitioner (the person who files the first divorce or legal separation forms with the court) fills out and files with the court clerk at least a Petition—Marriage/Domestic Partnership (form FL-100) and a Summons (form FL-110) and, if there are children of the relationship, a Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (form FL-105).
- The forms needed to start your case and information about filing fees and fee waivers are available at “Filing Your Case,” at courts.ca.gov/filing.
- The court clerk will stamp and return copies of the filed forms to the petitioner.

STEP 2. Serve the Forms

- Someone 18 or older—not the petitioner—serves the spouse or domestic partner (called the respondent) with all the forms from Step 1 plus a blank Response—Marriage/Domestic Partnership (form FL-120) and files with the court a proof-of-service form, such as Proof of Service of Summons (form FL-115), telling when and how the respondent was served. (To serve means “to give in the proper legal way.”) For more information, see “Serving Your First Set of Court Forms” at courts.ca.gov/filing.
- The respondent has 30 days to file and serve a Response. So, the petitioner must wait 30 days before starting Step 4.

STEP 3. Disclose Financial Information

- At the same time as Step 1 or within 60 days of filing the Petition, the petitioner must fill out and have these documents served on the respondent: Declaration of Disclosure (form FL-140), Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150), Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or Property Declaration (form FL-160), and all tax returns filed by the party in the two years before serving the disclosure documents. These disclosure documents are not filed with the court.
- If the respondent files a Response, he or she must also complete and serve the same disclosure documents on the petitioner within 60 days of filing the Response.
- The 60-day time frame for serving the disclosures may be changed by written agreement between the parties or by court order.
- The petitioner and respondent each file a Declaration Regarding Service (form FL-141) with the court saying disclosures were served. If the respondent does not serve disclosures, the petitioner can still finish the case without them. For more information, see “Fill Out and Serve Your Financial Declaration of Disclosure Forms” at courts.ca.gov/filing (click on Step 4).

STEP 4. Finish the Divorce or Legal Separation Case in One of Four Ways

Respondent does not file a Response (called “default”)

No Response and NO written agreement: Petitioner waits 30 days after Step 2 is complete and prepares a proposed Judgment (form FL-180), together with all other needed forms. See “True Default Case” at courts.ca.gov/truedefault.

No Response BUT written agreement: Petitioner attaches the signed and notarized agreement to the proposed Judgment (form FL-180), together with all other needed forms. See “Default Case with Written Agreement” at courts.ca.gov/defaultagree.

Respondent files a Response

Response AND written agreement: Either party files Appearance, Stipulations, and Waivers (form FL-130) and the proposed Judgment with written agreement attached and other needed forms. See “Uncontested Case” at courts.ca.gov/uncontested.

Response and NO agreement: Parties must go to trial to have a judge resolve the issues. See “Contested Case” at courts.ca.gov/contested.

IMPORTANT NOTICES

- The earliest you can be divorced is six months and one day from one of these three dates (whichever occurs first): (1) the date Respondent was served with the Summons (form FL-110) and Petition (form FL-100), (2) the date the Response (form FL-120) was filed, or (3) the date Appearance, Stipulations, and Waivers (form FL-130) was filed. Legal separation has no waiting period. You are NOT divorced or legally separated until the court enters a Judgment in your case.
- If you need court orders for child support, custody, parenting time (visitation), spousal or partner support, restraining orders, or other issues, file a Request for Order (form FL-300) asking for temporary orders. See “Request for Order Information” at courts.ca.gov/divorcerequests for more information.
- Annulments: See courts.ca.gov/annulment for information about annulments.
- You must keep the court and the other party informed of any change in your mailing address or other contact information. File and serve a Notice of Change of Address or Other Contact Information (form MC-040) on the other party or his or her attorney to let them know about the change in your contact information.

Do you have a registered domestic partnership? The process for a divorce or legal separation of a domestic partnership is the same as on page 1. For information about ending your domestic partnership in the superior court, see courts.ca.gov/filing. To find out if you are eligible to end your domestic partnership through the Secretary of State, see courts.ca.gov/summdissodp. Note: There may be differences in federal taxes and other issues for domestic partnerships. Seek advice from an attorney experienced in domestic partner law.

What if you want a legal separation? The process on page 1 is the same, except you will NOT get a Judgment for legal separation unless both parties agree to a legal separation OR if respondent has not filed a Response. If both parties agree to be legally separated but do not agree on other issues, the parties must go to trial to have a judge resolve those issues. You are NOT legally separated until you receive a Judgment signed by the court. For more information, see “Legal Separation” at courts.ca.gov/legalseparation. AFTER the court enters a judgment for legal separation, if you decide you want a divorce, you must start a new case to request a divorce and pay another filing fee.

Getting help to resolve divorce or legal separation cases

You may prefer to resolve some or all of the issues in your divorce or legal separation case without having the court decide for you. You and your spouse or domestic partner can put your agreement in writing and file it in your case. But your agreement must follow all legal requirements.

Court Services

- Family Law Facilitators and Self-Help Centers help with court forms and instructions. They can provide samples of agreements and other information and, in some cases, help with mediation.
- Family Court Services. If you and the other parent already have a family law case and have filed a Request for Order (form FL-300) seeking orders about child custody and visitation (parenting time), the court will refer you to Family Court Services. They provide child custody mediation or child custody recommending counseling to try to help you both make a parenting plan that is in the best interest of your child. Note: They cannot help with financial issues.
- Settlement Conferences. An informal process in which a judge or an experienced lawyer meets with the parties and their lawyers to discuss the case and their positions and suggests a resolution. The parties can either agree to the suggestions or use the suggestions to help in further settlement discussions.

Private services (which you can hire to help you resolve your case):

- Lawyers. Also called attorneys, lawyers can help work out agreements between the parties and represent you at court hearings and trials.
- Collaborative Lawyers. Lawyers who represent each party but do not go to court. They try to reach an agreement. If court is necessary, the parties must hire new lawyers.
- Mediators. A lawyer or counselor who helps the parties communicate to explore options and reach a mutually acceptable resolution.

Where can I get help?

This information sheet gives you only basic information on the divorce or legal separation and is not legal advice. If you want legal advice, ask a lawyer for help. You may also:

- Contact the family law facilitator or self-help center in your court for information, court forms, and referrals to local legal resources. For more information, see courts.ca.gov/courtresources.
- Find a lawyer through a certified lawyer referral service on the State Bar of California's website: calbar.ca.gov/LRS or by calling 866-442-2529 (toll-free).
- Hire a private mediator. For more information about court and private services, see courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-adr.htm.
- Find information on the California Courts Online Self-Help Center website: courts.ca.gov/selfhelp.
- Find free and low-cost legal help (if you qualify) at lawhelpcalifornia.org.
- Find information at your local law library or public library.

What if there is domestic violence?

If there is domestic violence or a protective or restraining order, talk to a lawyer, counselor, or mediator before making agreements.

For domestic violence help, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline: 800-799-7233; TDD: 800-787-3224; or 211 (if available in your area).

START DIVORCE (DISSOLUTION), LEGAL SEPARATION OR NULLITY

Marriage / Domestic Partnership

General Information

The divorce process can be confusing and overwhelming. The information below is designed to help you understand the basic steps needed to successfully complete the process. If you have complicated issues of property, support, custody, pensions or other questions about your rights and responsibilities, you may want to consult an attorney outside the court. Court staff, including Family Law Facilitators, can provide procedural assistance; they cannot give legal advice. For information about attorney referral services, check the court website at:

www.cc-courts.org/findlawyer

1. If you need help with these forms, you can find information about the divorce, legal separation and nullity process through the Family Law Facilitator's Office. For more information on their services, go to the court's website at:
<https://www.cc-courts.org/family/flf.aspx>
2. There is a filing fee to file your divorce, legal separation or nullity case. It is currently set at $435 but is subject to change. If you cannot afford to pay the court filing fee, you may qualify for a waiver of court filing fees. "Fee Waiver" packets are available from the clerks in the Spinetta Family Law building in Martinez or you may download a "Fee Waiver" packet from the court's website at:
<https://www.cc-courts.org/forms/packets/FW001-FeeWaiverPacket.pdf>
3. Use the Divorce/Legal Separation/Nullity checklist included in this packet to keep track of the documents that you have filed.

NOTICE: You may redact (black out) social security numbers from any written material filed with the court in this case other than a form used to collect child, spousal or partner support.

NOTICE—CANCELLATION OF RIGHTS: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a domestic partner or spouse under the other domestic partner's or spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a domestic partner or spouse as beneficiary of the other partner's or spouse's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions. Some changes may require the agreement of your partner or spouse or a court order.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM FL-160

Property Declaration (form FL-160) is a multipurpose form, which may be filed with the court as an attachment to a Petition or Response or served on the other party to comply with disclosure requirements in place of a Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142). Courts may also require a party to file a Property Declaration as an attachment to a Request to Enter Default (form FL-165) or Judgment (form FL-180).

Identify the type of declaration completed

1. Check "Community and Quasi-Community Property Declaration" on page 1 to use Property Declaration (form FL-160) to provide a combined list of community and quasi-community property assets and debts. Quasi-community property is property you own outside of California that would be community property if it were located in California.
2. Do not combine a separate property declaration with a community and quasi-community property declaration. Check "Separate Property Declaration" on page 1 when using Property Declaration to provide a list of separate property assets and debts.

Description of the Property Declaration chart

Pages 1 and 2

1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each item of separate or community or quasi-community property.
2. Column B is used to list the date the item was acquired.
3. Column C is used to list the item's gross fair market value (an estimate of the amount of money you could get if you sold the item to another person through an advertisement).
4. Column D is used to list the amount owed on the item.
5. Column E is used to indicate the net fair market value of each item. The net fair market value is calculated by subtracting the dollar amount in column D from the amount in column C ("C minus D").
6. Column F is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item described in column A.

Page 3

1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each separate or community or quasi-community property debt.

STANDARD FAMILY LAW RESTRAINING ORDERS

Starting immediately, you and your spouse or domestic partner are restrained from:

1. removing the minor children of the parties from the state or applying for a new or replacement passport for those minor children without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court;
2. cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage, including life, health, automobile, and disability, held for the benefit of the parties and their minor children;
3. transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life; and
4. creating a nonprobate transfer or modifying a nonprobate transfer in a manner that affects the disposition of property subject to the transfer, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court. Before revocation of a nonprobate transfer can take effect or a right of survivorship to property can be eliminated, notice of the change must be filed and served on the other party.

You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days prior to incurring these extraordinary expenditures and account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these restraining orders are effective. However, you may use community property, quasi-community property, or your own separate property to pay an attorney to help you or to pay court costs.

NOTICE—ACCESS TO AFFORDABLE HEALTH

INSURANCE: Do you or someone in your household need affordable health insurance? If so, you should apply for Covered California. Covered California can help reduce the cost you pay towards high quality affordable health care. For more information, visit www.coveredca.com. Or call Covered California at 1-800-300-1506.

WARNING—IMPORTANT INFORMATION

California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If either party to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the deed that characterizes how title is held (i.e., joint tenancy, tenants in common, or community property) will be controlling, and not the community property presumption. You should consult your attorney if you want the community property presumption to be written into the recorded title to the property.

ÓRDENES DE RESTRICCIÓN ESTÁNDAR DE DERECHO FAMILIAR

1. llevarse del estado de California a los hijos menores de las partes, o solicitar un pasaporte nuevo o de repuesto para los hijos menores, sin el consentimiento previo por escrito de la otra parte o sin una orden de la corte;
2. cobrar, pedir prestado, cancelar, transferir, deshacerse o cambiar el nombre de los beneficiarios de cualquier seguro u otro tipo de cobertura, como de vida, salud, vehículo y discapacidad, que tenga como beneficiario(s) a las partes y su(s) hijo(s) menor(es);
3. transferir, gravar, hipotecar, ocultar o deshacerse de cualquier manera de cualquier propiedad, inmueble o personal, ya sea comunitaria, cuasicomunitaria o separada, sin el consentimiento escrito de la otra parte o una orden de la corte, excepto en el curso habitual de actividades personales y comerciales o para satisfacer las necesidades de la vida; y
4. crear o modificar una transferencia no testamentaria de manera que afecte la asignación de una propiedad sujeta a transferencia, sin el consentimiento por escrito de la otra parte o una orden de la corte. Antes de que se pueda eliminar la revocación de una transferencia no testamentaria, se debe presentar ante la corte un aviso del cambio y hacer una entrega legal de dicho aviso a la otra parte.

Cada parte tiene que notificar a la otra sobre cualquier gasto extraordinario propuesto por lo menos cinco días hábiles antes de realizarlo, y rendir cuenta a la corte de todos los gastos extraordinarios realizados después de que estas órdenes de restricción hayan entrado en vigencia. No obstante, puede usar propiedad comunitaria, cuasicomunitaria o suya separada para pagar a un abogado que lo ayude o para pagar los costos de la corte.

AVISO—ACCESO A SEGURO DE SALUD MÁS ECONÓMICO:

¿Necesita seguro de salud a un costo asequible, ya sea para usted o alguien en su hogar? Si es así, puede presentar una solicitud con Covered California. Covered California lo puede ayudar a reducir el costo que paga por seguro de salud asequible y de alta calidad. Para obtener más información, visite www.coveredca.com. O llame a Covered California al 1-800-300-0213.

ADVERTENCIA—INFORMACIÓN IMPORTANTE

De acuerdo a la ley de California, las propiedades adquiridas por las partes durante su matrimonio o pareja de hecho en forma conjunta se consideran propiedad comunitaria para fines de la división de bienes que ocurre cuando se produce una disolución o separación legal del matrimonio o pareja de hecho. Si cualquiera de las partes de este caso llega a fallecer antes de que se divida la propiedad comunitaria de tenencia conjunta, el destino de la misma quedará determinado por las cláusulas de la escritura correspondiente que describen su tenencia (por ej., tenencia conjunta, tenencia en común o propiedad comunitaria) y no por la presunción de propiedad comunitaria. Si quiere que la presunción comunitaria quede registrada en la escritura de la propiedad, debería consultar con un abogado.

SERVING THE OTHER PARTY

AND FILING PROOF OF SERVICE OF SUMMONS

WHO: Who do I have to have served?

The Respondent in your case. If your case has other parties in it, they will also need to be served.

Who does the service?

You cannot serve your own papers. Someone 18 years old or older and who is not a party to the case must serve the Respondent. That person must hand the documents to the Respondent personally.

If you have a fee waiver, the Sheriff will serve your papers for you. (Civil Division, 920 Mellus Street, Martinez, CA, 8 am - 4 pm)

You can also hire a professional process server to do the service. You can find professional process servers in the Yellow Pages of your phone book or by searching the Internet.

WHAT: What papers do I have served on the other party to the case?

ALL of the papers you filed with the Court, and blank responsive documents such as:

- Petition (FL-100) (completed)
- Summons (FL-110) (completed)
- Response (FL-120) (blank)
- Declaration Under UCCJEA (FL-105) (completed)
- Declaration Under UCCJEA (FL-105) (blank)
- Declaration of Disclosure, (if you have completed the following documents at the time you serve the Summons and Petition.) This consists of: completed and blank Declaration of Disclosure (FL-140), Schedule of Assets and Debts (FL-142), Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150).

If you file a Request for Order(s) at the same time you file your Summons and Petition, you will need to serve a filed copy of those papers and a blank Responsive Declaration on the Respondent.

What should I do after the other party has been served?

- Have the person who served the Respondent complete and sign the Proof of Service of Summons (FL-115).
- Make 1 copy of the Proof of Service of Summons
- File the completed Proof of Service and 1 copy at the Clerk's Office, in Martinez.

WHEN: When do I have to have the other party served?

- If you filed a Request for Order with the Summons and Petition, at least 16 court days before the hearing or as otherwise stated on your Court papers.
- If you did not file a Request for Order with the Summons and Petition, as soon as possible.

WHERE: Where do I get a Proof of Service?

Contra Costa County Public Law Library, AF Bray Building, 1020 Ward Street, 1st Floor, Martinez, or online at www.cc-courts.org/forms.

WHY: Why do I have to have the other party served?

Nothing else may happen in your case if you do not file a Proof of Service. For instance, you can't take the other party's default until you have filed the Proof of Service of Summons.

If you filed a Request for Order when you filed the Petition and Summons and the other party is not served, or is not served on time, the Judge may not hear your case on the date set and may postpone your case until the other party is properly served.

IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT SERVICE OR FILING YOUR PROOF OF SERVICE OF SUMMONS AND YOU DO NOT HAVE AN ATTORNEY, COME TO THE HELP DESK IN THE MARTINEZ, PITTSBURG OR RICHMOND COURTHOUSES:

NOTICE: You may redact (black out) social security numbers from any written material filed with the court in this case other than a form used to collect child, spousal or partner support.

NOTICE—CANCELLATION OF RIGHTS: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a domestic partner or spouse under the other domestic partner's or spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a domestic partner or spouse as beneficiary of the other partner's or spouse's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions. Some changes may require the agreement of your partner or spouse or a court order.

The original response must be filed in the court with proof of service of a copy on Petitioner.

DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Parties to dissolution, legal separation and nullity cases are required to exchange a Declaration of Disclosure with the other party. The following forms are the Declaration of Disclosure forms:
 - ☐ Declaration of Disclosure (FL-140) (Note: You must attach your Tax Returns for the last two years)
 - ☐ Property Declarations (FL-160) OR Schedule of Assets & Debts (FL-142) (Note: If using the FL-160, you will need to complete two forms, one for your community property and one for your separate property.)
 - ☐ Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150)
2. Gather your financial documents. You will need:
 - ☐ Tax Returns for the last two years
 - ☐ Pay Stubs for the last two months; or Profit & Loss if self-employed
 - ☐ Any title documents (homes, cars, etc.)
 - ☐ Current loan statements (mortgage, credit cards)
 - ☐ Current bank statement(s)
 - ☐ Current retirement account statement(s)
3. Complete the required forms and attach all related documents (e.g. the FL-150 requires you to attach your paystubs for the last two months).
4. Make 1 copy of the FL-140 and FL-160/FL-142 (one for yourself; one for the other party) with all related attachments. Do not file these forms with the court.
5. Make 2 copies of the FL-150, with all related attachments (one for the other party; original and one copy for filing).
6. Have a copy of each form (FL-140, FL-160 OR FL-142, and FL-150) served on the other party in your case, along with a Blank FL-140, FL-160/FL-142, and FL-150, and your Tax Returns for the last two years.
7. Have the person who served the documents on the other party complete and sign the appropriate Proof of Service form (see "Serving the Other Party" instruction page, included within this packet).
8. You complete and sign the Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure (FL-141) and attach the signed Proof of Service. This document is very important, as it tells the Court that you have completed and served your Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure.
9. Make 2 copies of the FL-141 and any attached Proof of Service.
10. File the completed FL-150, FL-141, and any attached Proof of Service with the court.

Who is required to complete these forms?

Both parties are required to complete the Preliminary Declarations of Disclosure, unless the Respondent has not filed a Response and the matter is proceeding by default. In that case, the Respondent is not required to complete the Declarations of Disclosure.

When am I required to complete these forms?

There are two requirements for financial disclosures, the preliminary and the final. The preliminary set is prepared at the beginning of your case. It is best to serve these on the other party as soon as possible so your case will move forward. This must be done within 60 days of the filing of the Petition if you are the Petitioner, and within 60 days of filing the Response if you are the Respondent.

You can prepare these forms and serve them with the Summons and Petition or you can serve them later by mail or personal service.

There is a requirement to complete a second set of these forms, the Final Declaration of Disclosure, when your case is going to trial, or when you are entering Judgment through agreement – the “end” of your case. However, the parties may agree to waive this requirement as part of the judgment process using the Stipulation and Waiver of Final Declaration of Disclosure form (FL-144). This may only be used to waive the final disclosures and cannot be used to waive the preliminary disclosures, which are mandatory.

Why complete the FL-160's instead of the FL-142, or the reverse?

If you completed the FL-160 with your Petition/Response, you may use the same forms as part of your disclosure process as long as they are complete and current. Because the FL-160's can be filed with the court, they are generally used when anticipating a default case, or when the court is requiring them to be filed in preparation for a settlement conference or trial. If you prefer to use the FL-142, you may do so.

What do I attach to the FL-160?

When you are filing the FL-160 with the court, nothing is attached.

However, when the FL-160 is being served on the other party as part of your Declaration of Disclosure, you must attach all the same documents you would attach to the FL-142, including title documents, bank statements, etc. (see page 4 - Information and Instructions for Completing Form FL-160 – for a list of required documents to attach).

DO NOT FILE DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSURE OR FINANCIAL ATTACHMENTS WITH THE COURT

In a dissolution, legal separation, or nullity action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court. Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or waived must be filed with the court (see form FL-141).

- In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109).
- In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment or a judgment based on a marital settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110).
- Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure may not be waived by an agreement between the parties.
- Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144).

The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(f)).

Attached are the following:

1. ☐ A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or ☐ A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify):
☐ Community and Quasi-Community Property ☐ Separate Property.
2. ☐ A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150).

4. ☐ A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form).
5. ☐ A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form).
6. ☐ An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form).
