The Clerk of the Court cannot accept for filing any papers that do not comply with California Rules of Court 2.100 et seq. (CRC 2.118)

To avoid having your papers rejected by the clerk:

Use Judicial Council forms whenever possible

If you print Judicial Council forms from your computer, print them out single-sided. (Don't print double-sided unless you know how to tumble the pages). Judicial Council forms can be found at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/forms.htm>.

If the form you need is not on the Judicial Council website, you will have to make your own form which follows these rules

1. White or unbleached paper – 8 1/2 by 11 inches
2. One-sided paper – only one side of each page may be used
3. 12 pt font (Courier, Times New Roman, Arial or equivalent (Handwritten papers are OK – but write legibly)
4. Line spacing - One and one-half or double-spaced (use pleading paper – either the Judicial Council form MC-20 or create your own using the legal template in your word processor)
5. Margins – at least 1 inch from the left edge and ½ inch from right edge
6. Page Numbers – pages must be numbered consecutively on the bottom (1, 2, 3 ...)
7. Binding – Original and copies must be firmly bound (e.g. stapled) AND the Original must be 2-hole punched at the top.

You will need the Original document, signed in ink (blue is best), and correct number of identical copies (original for the Court, a copy for each party) for the clerk to file.

The Rules are important – Remember - You want the Judge to understand what you have written. Don't make that impossible by submitting papers that are too hard to read because they are upside down, the print is too small or too light, or the pages have fallen out of the file because they are too small or too large and/or not properly fastened.

Property Declaration (form FL-160) is a multipurpose form, which may be filed with the court as an attachment to a Petition or Response or served on the other party to comply with disclosure requirements in place of a Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142). Courts may also require a party to file a Property Declaration as an attachment to a Request to Enter Default (form FL-165) or Judgment (form FL-180).

When filing a Property Declaration with the court, do not include private financial documents listed below.

Identify the type of declaration completed

1. Check "Community and Quasi-Community Property Declaration" on page 1 to use Property Declaration (form FL-160) to provide a combined list of community and quasi-community property assets and debts. Quasi-community property is property you own outside of California that would be community property if it were located in California.
2. Do not combine a separate property declaration with a community and quasi-community property declaration. Check "Separate Property Declaration" on page 1 when using Property Declaration to provide a list of separate property assets and debts.

Description of the Property Declaration chart

Pages 1 and 2

1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each item of separate or community or quasi-community property.
2. Column B is used to list the date the item was acquired.
3. Column C is used to list the item's gross fair market value (an estimate of the amount of money you could get if you sold the item to another person through an advertisement).
4. Column D is used to list the amount owed on the item.
5. Column E is used to indicate the net fair market value of each item. The net fair market value is calculated by subtracting the dollar amount in column D from the amount in column C ("C minus D").
6. Column F is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item described in column A.

1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each separate or community or quasi-community property debt.
2. Column B is used to list the date the debt was acquired.
3. Column C is used to list the total amount of money owed on the debt.
4. Column D is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item of debt described in column A.

When using this form only as an attachment to a Petition or Response

1. Attach a Separate Property Declaration (form FL-160) to respond to item 9. Only columns A and F on pages 1 and 2 and columns A and D on page 3 are required.
2. Attach a Community or Quasi-Community Declaration (form FL-160) to respond to item 10, and complete column A on all pages.

When serving this form on the other party as an attachment to Declaration of Disclosure (form FL-140)

1. Complete columns A through E on pages 1 and 2, and columns A through C on page 3.
2. Copies of the following documents must be attached and served on the other party:
 - (a) For real estate (item 1): deeds with legal descriptions and the latest lender's statement.
 - (b) For vehicles, boats, trailers (item 4): the title documents.
 - (c) For all bank accounts (item 5, 6, 7): the latest statement.
 - (d) For life insurance policies with cash surrender or loan value (item 10): the latest declaration page.

 - (l) For credit cards and other debts (items 23 and 24): the latest statement.
3. Do not file copies of the above private financial documents with the court.

NOTICE

Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner under the other spouse's or domestic partner's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, transfer-on-death vehicle registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar property interest. It does not automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner as beneficiary of the other spouse's or domestic partner's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions.

A debt or obligation may be assigned to one party as part of the dissolution of property and debts, but if that party does not pay the debt or obligation, the creditor may be able to collect from the other party.

An earnings assignment may be issued without additional proof if child, family, partner, or spousal support is ordered.

Any party required to pay support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal rate," which is currently 10 percent.
